The application window is open for membership on the Tulane School of Professional Advancement (Tulane SoPA) Recent Alumni Council.

Council representatives are supporters of the school who serve as a resource for Dean Suri Duitch providing feedback and guidance on SoPA's student services, curriculum and alumni relations. Representatives support the school directly through an annual, minimum contribution of $50.

Applicants must have graduated from Tulane SoPA between 2017 and the present and be available to meet twice a year via Zoom.

To apply to become a member of the Recent Alumni Council, please complete the application by May 5, 2022.
